

Hymn of the Holy One

(Verse 1)

Before Your throne, the angels bow,
Holy and worthy, eternal now.
Jesus, Redeemer, the Lamb who was slain,
Forever You reign, forever the same.
The heavens resound with the songs of old,
Your glory proclaimed in whispers and bold.
From mountains to seas, creation cries,
Holy is Jesus, the King who never dies.

(Chorus)

Holy, Holy, Lord Most High,
Crowned with glory, lifted to the sky.
We lift our voices, Your name we praise,
Singing the hymn of the Ancient of Days.

(Verse 2)

In every heart, Your light takes hold,
A love eternal, a grace untold.
You heal the broken, You calm the waves,
Jesus, the Savior, mighty to save.
Your hands have carved the stars above,
Your cross has written the song of love.
Through every trial, we stand as one,
Lifting our hymn to God's risen Son.

(Chorus)

Holy, Holy, Lord Most High,
Crowned with glory, lifted to the sky.
We lift our voices, Your name we praise,

Singing the hymn of the Ancient of Days.

(Bridge)

The veil was torn, the grave undone,
The victory won by the Holy One.
Let every nation and every tongue,
Sing of the Savior, the Risen Son.

(Chorus)

Holy, Holy, Lord Most High,
Crowned with glory, lifted to the sky.
We lift our voices, Your name we praise,
Singing the hymn of the Ancient of Days.

(Outro)

Forever You reign, forever adored,
Jesus, our Savior, our risen Lord.
Through endless ages, Your praise begun,
We sing the hymn of the Holy One.
